2025

Big Death Amego is a Punk Hardcore band offering a unique crossover between grunge and modern metal.

Active on the scene since 2015, the band has gone through several lineups, but it is ultimately Hugues, Clément, Louis, Pierre, and Sacha who have established themselves as the definitive lineup. The members come from the metal world, each bringing their own influences.

The band draws on this diversity to forge a strong and unique identity, blending punk hardcore, grunge, and modern metal. Through their lyrics, Big Death Amego aims to break the stereotypes of punk hardcore as solely violent, promoting values such as respect and better living together.

The band recently opened for LoudBlast and LocoMuerte, solidifying its presence on the French scene.

The year 2025 marks a turning point with an invitation from the Opéra de Lille to perform a unique show alongside the Orchestre d'Harmonie de Lille-Fives, as part of the opening of the 2025–2026 opera season. This ambitious project aims to build bridges between hardcore music and classical music, reaching a wider audience beyond the traditional metal scene.

We've also had the chance to share the stage with several bands from northern France such as Lies Matter, Soul-X, Bare Teeth, November, and Gummo, as well as Vautours and Bill the Dog, with whom we went on tour.

Our latest EP, We Are From The Northside, Where The Sky Is Full Of Hope, allowed us to refine our style, explore our musical world more deeply, and garnered many positive reviews praising its balance of aggression and emotion.

We are currently composing a new album, which will be more direct, more personal — a reflection of who we are today and where we're headed artistically.
